

Who can vote in the 2024 Victorian local council elections?

You can only vote once in each municipality, no matter how many properties you own or occupy.
You must enrol before 4 pm on Friday 30 August 2024.

| | | | |
|--|--|--|--|
|  State enrolled voters Automatically enrolled If you are on the state roll you are automatically enrolled to vote in the 2024 council elections for your enrolled address (where you live). | Owner ratepayers Up to 2 people per property can apply to vote if: 1) you pay council rates on your home but you are not an Australian citizen. Or 2) you own a property in a municipality that you don't live in full time e.g. holiday home, investment property or business property. Once off application process  | Occupier ratepayers Up to 2 people per property can apply to vote if you rent a property and pay rates to council, and you are not on the state roll in that municipality e.g. you operate a business out of a commercial property. Must reapply at every general council election  | Corporations Corporations that pay rates may be able to appoint one representative to vote. Call the council for further information. Must reapply at every general council election  |
|--|--|--|--|

Enrol with the VEC

Enrol with your council

2024 Voters Roll

Voting is compulsory for everyone who is enrolled.

*¹Whittlesea City Council and Casey City Council did not have a general election in 2020, and have different rules for the 2024 election. Some property owners will be automatically enrolled. For further information check our website.

*²Moira Shire Council's next general election will be in October 2028.

*³Melbourne City Council has different rules for enrolling and voting. For further information check our website.