

Declaration of no obligation to submit 2023-24 financial year annual return - Third-party campaigner

Section 217K of the Electoral Act 2002 (the Act) requires the registered agent of third-party campaigners to submit a financial year annual return to the Victorian Electoral Commission (VEC).

You are a third-party campaigner if you or your organisation is not:

- a registered political party (RPP)
- a candidate at an election or an elected member
- an associated entity
- a nominated entity of a political party

and you receive political donations or incur political costs equal to or above the general cap in a financial year.

The general cap for the 2023-24 financial year is $4,670.

Definitions of political donations, political expenditure and third-party campaigners are provided in section 206(1) of the Act.

Third-party campaigners need to submit an annual return to the VEC. If you are not a third-party campaigner for the 2023-24 financial year, submit the declaration below.

Declaration of no annual return requirement for 2023-24 financial year
I declare that the entity named below did not meet the definition of a third-party campaigner (per section 206(1) of the Electoral Act 2002 ) during the 2023-24 financial year.
Third-party campaigner entity name
Name of person making declaration*
